Meals

Our training academy provides all meals to our candidates during the training programme. This would include a light breakfast and lunch. Candidates utilising our accommodation facilities are supplied with dinner. We also provide tea, coffee and juice during the course. There are no extra costs involved with all meal costs included in the total course fee.

In the event that a candidate has special nutritional requirements, this needs to be communicated to us in order for these needs to be accommodated.

Who Should Attend

Bodyguard Services Training Academy provides specialist training to those individuals who wish to pursue a career in the field of VIP protection. Our training programmes are designed to deliver the highest level of training to those with little or no previous training or experience, as well as to those CPO's who have vast experience but are looking to advance their skills toolbox.

The training courses are presented in both a corporate conference facility as well as 'in the field' practical training.

Important:

Please note that as we are an accredited training academy dedicated to delivering the highest level of training, all our candidates are required to attend the entire programme for that specific course. The training is both mentally challenging and physically intensive and takes place from 08h00 to 17h30 week days, 09h00 to 12h00 on Saturday's and Sunday's are at leisure.

Candidates will be expected to complete special assignments and projects, often after hours. These assignments are performed to give our facilitators/instructors a clear understanding of the candidate's competency on various topics.

Firearms Training

Live firearm handling and training does take place on our courses. South African candidates will be required to complete both the "Demonstrate Knowledge of Firearms Control Act", SASSETA unit standard 117705 and "Handle and Use of a Handgun", SASSETA unit standard 119649. All candidates who may have already completed the abovementioned unit standards must supply proof of such. If not, then you will be required to complete this part of the programme as well.

The course cost does include 50 rounds of ammunition per candidate. Additional costs will apply for further ammunition supplied if a candidate does not achieve competency within the prescribed 50 rounds supplied.

BOOKING REQUIREMENTS:

Courses are only considered booked once the candidate has paid the full amount of the course not later than 3 weeks prior to commencement of the chosen course and has submitted the proof of payment as well as the completed registration form.

Courses are subject to a minimum of 6 candidates booked and paid for. Bodyguard Services Training Academy reserves the right to cancel any courses and, should this occur, deposits paid will be refunded with immediate effect.

Bodyguard Services Training Academy is a proudly South African company and we look forward to hosting you on one or more of our specifically designed training programmes.
